Introduction

Cohen & Malad, LLP is a litigation firm founded in 1968 by a former Indiana Attorney General, a former United States Attorney and three other distinguished lawyers. With 25 experienced attorneys, we litigate cases across multiple practice areas including: class action, mass torts and individual personal injuries, business litigation, family law, as well as commercial litigation and appeals.

Cohen & Malad, LLP enjoys a reputation as one of Indiana's leading class action law firms. Over the last 50 years, the firm has served as class counsel in numerous local, statewide, multi-state, nationwide, and even international class actions. We have also served in leadership positions in numerous multidistrict litigation matters. Our personal injury and medical malpractice trial lawyers have handled high profile cases against medical providers who subjected hundreds of their patients to unnecessary procedures, sometimes leading to deaths.

Significant Class Actions

Lead Counsel, Co-lead Counsel, or Executive Committee

- ❖ In re Holocaust Victim Assets Litigation; Settlement of $1.25 billion for claims relating to conversion of bank accounts and property of victims of the Holocaust during the Nazi era.

Our Attorneys

Irwin B. Levin, Managing Partner

Irwin joined Cohen & Malad, LLP in 1978 and concentrates his practice in the areas of class action, mass torts and commercial litigation. Irwin served on the Executive Committee in litigation against Swiss Banks on behalf of Holocaust victims around the world which culminated in an historic $1.25 billion settlement. He has also served as lead counsel in class action cases around the country since 1983 including two class action cases against the Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles, which settled for nearly $100 million, and was Co-Lead Counsel in two major antitrust cases against the concrete industry. Those cases settled for over $75 million. Irwin has also served in leadership in various MDL and mass tort cases such as Pain Pump and Hormone Therapy litigation. Irwin currently is counsel for dozens of Indiana cities and counties in litigation against companies responsible for the opioid epidemic.

David J. Cutshaw

David's practice includes both class action and mass medical malpractice litigation. He served as co-lead counsel to successfully negotiate over $59 million in settlements for more than 280 plaintiffs against former ENT surgeon Mark Weinberger who performed unnecessary sinus surgeries, negligent surgeries, and abandoned his patients. Weinberger was sentenced to seven years in jail for health care fraud. David acted as co-lead counsel in 263 claims against a Northwest Indiana cardiology group alleged to have unnecessarily implanted pacemakers and defibrillators and performed unnecessary cardiac vessel stenting. Those claims were recently settled for over $67 million. He has also tried numerous medical malpractice jury trials as first chair.

Gregory L. Laker

Greg is the chair of the personal injury practice group and oversees the firm's dangerous drug and defective medical device litigation team. Greg and his team have held leadership positions in several multidistrict litigations including In re: Prem Pro Products Liability, Pain Pump Device Litigation, In re: Consolidated Fresenius Cases (Granuflo), In re: Testosterone Replacement Therapy Products Liability, and others. Greg also oversees the firm's sexual abuse litigation team and litigates cases involving molestation committed by perpetrators in institutional care facilities, sports and organizational groups, churches, schools, and doctor or medical offices.

Richard E. Shevitz

Richard is the chair of the class action practice group and handles a wide variety of class action lawsuits, including claims against insurance companies, manufacturers, and governmental entities. He led the trial court proceedings and handled the appeal of a class action on behalf of drivers who had been overcharged for fuel prices by a publicly held trucking company, which resulted in a judgment of approximately $5 million which was upheld on appeal. He also played a key role in the historic class action litigation bringing Holocaust-era claims against Swiss banks, which resolved for $1.25 billion, as well as the prosecution of Holocaust-related claims against leading German industrial enterprises, which were resolved through a $5 billion fund.

Lynn A. Toops

Lynn is a partner in the class action group and focuses her practice on high-stakes consumer protection litigation. Lynn and her team are currently litigating hundreds of class actions against financial institutions across the country for the improper assessment of various fees. In dozens of bank fee cases, Lynn and her team have obtained tens of millions in settlements on behalf of consumers. Lynn is also a nationwide leader in data breach litigation and is currently litigating and settling dozens of those cases on behalf of consumers. Lynn also represents cities and counties across Indiana that are battling the opioid prescription epidemic via litigation against manufacturers and distributors of prescription opioids. Lynn also served in a leading role in litigation against the state of Indiana for failure to pay promised adoption subsidy payments to families who adopted special needs children out of the state's foster care program.

Arend J. Abel

Arend's practice includes complex litigation and appeals. His clients range from governmental entities to businesses of all sizes, from Fortune 500 companies to sole proprietors. His legal career includes work for former Indiana attorney general Pamela Carter, for whom he served as special counsel. In that role, Arend briefed and argued two cases on the merits before the United States Supreme Court. He has also briefed and argued numerous cases before the Indiana State Supreme Court and State and Federal Trial and Appellate Courts. Arend supports the class action practice group via briefing on complex issues at the trial and appellate court level.

Scott D. Gilchrist

Scott is a class action attorney and concentrates his practice on antitrust, securities fraud, and consumer protection matters. Scott was a principal attorney in two antitrust cases against suppliers of ready-mixed concrete on behalf of small businesses, farmers and individuals. Vess A. Miller

Vess is a class action attorney and focuses his practice on consumer protection matters. He uncovered hundreds of illegal charges made by the Indiana BMV and gave closing arguments at trial. After a ruling for drivers, that case settled for over $62 million in refunds. Vess has also successfully litigated predatory lending claims against payday lenders that charged interest rates exceeding 1,000% APR. He defeated arbitration clauses that would have left consumer with no recovery, and successfully defended the wins at the Indiana Court of Appeals, the Indiana Supreme Court, and ultimately the United States Supreme Court.

Gabriel A. Hawkins

Gabriel is a class action and complex litigation attorney. He is an integral part of the firm's mass medical malpractice litigation team. He helped represent over 280 plaintiffs in lawsuits against former ENT surgeon Mark Weinberger who performed unnecessary sinus surgeries, negligent surgeries, and abandoned his patients. Weinberger was sentenced to seven years in jail for health care fraud. Gabriel's work contributed to the successful $59 million global settlement for these plaintiffs.

Lisa M. La Fornara

Lisa handles complex civil litigation, including class and representative actions, with a focus on consumer protection, financial services, and data security matters. Lisa has actively litigated hundreds of actions against financial institutions and has helped consumers recover tens of millions of dollars in improperly collected fee revenue. Lisa has helped achieve leading settlements in actions against companies that failed to protect their customers' most sensitive data, providing meaningful equitable and financial relief for victims who experienced or are likely to experience identity theft and fraud. Lisa has also uncovered and obtained refunds for consumers who were systematically underpaid by their insurers following the total loss of their vehicles and has represented whistleblowers in qui tam and False Claims Act cases involving fraud against the government.

Tyler B. Ewigleben

Tyler focuses his practice on consumer protection litigation on both a local and national scale. He is an advocate for consumers, businesses, and municipalities who have been harmed or victimized by an unfair practice, policy, or event that has also affected hundreds or sometimes thousands of other individuals. Tyler is currently litigating hundreds of class actions against financial institutions across the country for the improper assessment of various fees. He has played a critical role in obtaining tens of millions of dollars in settlements on behalf of consumers through his mastery of case initiation, managing complex discovery, and briefing complex legal issues. Tyler also represents consumers and businesses in data breach litigation across the country, with dozens of cases currently being litigated and settled.

Natalie A. Lyons

Natalie Lyons focuses on complex and class action matters. Over her career, she has represented consumer and civil rights plaintiffs in federal and state class actions around the country—including two federal civil rights trials that resulted in merits wins for plaintiffs. She has litigated against the federal Departments of Homeland Security and Education, state correctional agencies, and an array of commercial defendants. She is presently litigating complicated class actions in state and federal courts under consumer protection laws, the Telephone Consumer Protection Act and state contract and fraud laws.

Prior to joining Cohen & Malad, LLP, Natalie advocated on behalf of marginalized communities in litigation, direct representation and policy advocacy at the Southern Poverty Law Center (Montgomery, AL), Housing & Economic Rights Advocates (Oakland, CA) and Equal Rights Advocates (San Francisco, CA). In her role as an advocate for racial and social justice, she has appeared on panels; authored reports, op-eds and white papers; and testified on behalf of legislation. - Yaz
 Cohen & Malad, LLP represented hundreds of women in claims against Bayer over its Yaz and Yasmin birth control oral contraceptive. These drugs contained a synthetic version of estrogen called drospirenone that was linked to an increased risk for blood clots, stroke, and heart attack. As of January 2016, Bayer agreed to pay $2.04 billion to settle over 10,000 claims for blood-clot injuries.
- Transvaginal Mesh
 Cohen & Malad, LLP represented hundreds of women in claims against transvaginal mesh manufacturers Ethicon, C.R. Bard, Boston Scientific, and American Medical Systems. Mesh implants are synthetic material used to support organs in women who suffer from pelvic organ prolapse and stress urinary incontinence. The FDA received thousands of complaints from women who suffered serious personal injury including perforated organs, infection, severe pain, and erosion of the mesh.
