Documentation

Please enclose all documents you have that would evidence the loan (the loan agreement, emails, bank statements (you may redact irrelevant portions), any other documents). If you are unable to locate documents, please enclose a description of the loan and the circumstances surrounding your taking out the loan. All claims will be evaluated, and claimants who do not provide documentation could have their claim declared invalid or could receive less compensation than those with documentation, so please provide as much information as you can.
